Attend the Hawkeye on Safety conference and become a safety leader in your workplace and community.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Vicki O'Leary, Ironworkers International

Vicki O'Leary joined the Ironworkers International in January 2016. Since that time, she became Chair of the North American Building Trades Union (NABTU) Tradeswomen's Committee. She is a 30+ year member of Ironworkers Local #1 in Chicago. She completed her triple major Bachelor of Arts degree in Union Leadership & Administration, Labor Education & Labor Studies from the National Labor College (2008) and obtained her Master of Arts Degree from Gonzaga University in Organizational Leadership (2012). She has also graduated for the Harvard Trade Union Program (HTUP- 2018) along with Cornell's National Labor Leadership Initiative (NLLI- 2018).

She passionately strives for equal opportunity for all ironworkers - one that is free from bullying, harassment, and intimidation.
